CREW BOARD MEMBER COMMITMENT

As CREW Vancouver is a non-profit organization, we rely on the hardworking, engaged and motivated individuals who propel our mission, vision, values and strategies forward. As a Board Member, we ask that you commit to the following:

1. A minimum two (2) year term in your role. This commitment allows CREW to establish consistency in our leadership, operations and provides for greater success as an organization.
2. Attendance of all board meetings. We understand volunteer time is extra-curricular and busy schedules can make volunteer time commitments a challenge; however, we ask that by accepting a board member role that you commit to attend all board meetings.
3. Commitment to engagement and communication. During your time on the CREW Vancouver Board, you'll play a large role in helping shape the success of our chapter. We ask that you commit to engagement and clear communication, including the timely turnaround of actioning tasks + responding to emails and phone calls. This commitment also extends to the leadership of your committee, providing mentorship, support and successful succession planning within the committee and board.

The CREW Vancouver Board is thrilled in your interest to join us!
